Ph.D. Teaching Requirement

Student Name: (Please print) _____

Policy effective Fall 2009

1. Waive teaching requirement for graduate students supported for at least one semester by a teaching assistantship during their tenure at UNM.
2. Graduate students who are not assigned to at least one semester teaching assistantship during their tenure at UNM will be required to give at least six lectures, not necessarily sequential or in the same course.

We waive the teaching requirement.

We do not waive the teaching requirement and propose that the student teaches six consecutive lectures as discussed. Please note once lectures have been completed, the committee chair must sign below.
